Bridges and Roads.

County Commissioners Slagle, March and Keefer at their meeting on Tuesday took action in the matter of three new bridges, one over Rock Creek on the Lincoln Highway, second over the same creek on Harrisburg road, and third over the Conewago Creek on the Biglerville road. The matter will be brought before the Grand Jury at the August court and if they recommend the bridges will be built. The estimates of the Highway Department appear to be large in the opinion of the Commissioners and in view of the fact that the commissioners built the handsome structure over Conewago Creek near New Oxford for about $9500, a bridge with a span of 120 feet, it is hoped that the three bridges can be built at a big saving. The span of bridge on Biglerville road would be about 80 feet and the Rock Creek structures about 60 feet. The time for the erection of bridges is when the State is building the highways and will connect up with the bridges, building the roadway across the bridges. Notice of hearing before Grand Jury is announced in another column.

M. Bennett & Sons, of Indiana, constructing the Harrisburg road, were low bidder on the additional two and two-tenths miles of reinforced concrete road in Straban and Tyrone townships, extending from Stone Jug to Heidersburg. The bid was $135,276.20.

The lowest bidders for the two sections of highway in Butler township was Winston & Company, of Kingston, N. Y. Their bid for a total of four and four-tenths miles was $188,325.14. One section begins at the top of Keckler's Hill and extends into Biglerville, the other begins at Biglerville and extends towards Bendersville.

LUTHERAN SUMMER ASSEMBLY

Opened with the Largest Enrollment Ever Had.

The Nineteenth Annual Lutheran Summer Assembly opened on last Friday evening with an enrollment of 120, being the largest number on record at opening of the assembly. Others have been coming in since. The attendance being from Pennsylvania, Maryland, West Virginia, New Jersey, New York, Ohio, Illinois, California and India. Including local people over two hundred persons were at the reception last Friday evening presided over by Dr. J. A. Singmaster. The program of the assembly has been carried out largely as outlined in previous issues. Before the assembly closed over 200 members had been enrolled, including 6 missionaries and 50 ministers.

At the annual business meeting of the assembly the officers of the past year were re-elected for the ensuing year: President, Dr. S. Winfield Herman, of Harrisburg; Vice President, Dr. W. A. Granville and Dr. J. A. Singmaster, of Gettysburg; Secretary, Rev. W. C. Ney, of Newport; Treasurer, Rev. J. H. Meyer, of Jersey City; Member of the Executive Committee, Mrs. J. P. Reese, of Baltimore. Next year the assembly will again meet the first week in August.

Dr. John Aberly, missionary in India, has delivered addresses at the assembly and on last Sunday morning preached the sermon in Christ Lutheran Church.

A fund has been started with three one dollar subscriptions by Mr. Dehoff, of Maytown; Mr. Gardner, of Washington, D. C., and the members of the delegation from Zion Lutheran Church of Harrisburg, for the erection of an open-air auditorium of pleasing architectural design on the Seminary Campus.

One of the concluding features of the assembly took place Thursday evening on the Seminary lawn. It was entitled "The Striking of America's Hour," presenting in an impressive way the world turning to America for life and light. It proved to be a beautiful and impressive feature.

Mothers' Assistance Fund.

The apportionment of the appropriation made by the State for the Mothers' Assistance Fund has been made and gives a total of $2751.08 available for Adams county for the next two years. A like sum is appropriated by the County Commissioners and the total available gives $2751.08 for each of the two years, a small increase. Only ten per cent is available for administration purposes and as the services of the Board of Directors carries no compensation the cost of administration in Adams county has not been much more than one-half of the amount allowed.

The Board of Mothers' Assistance Fund have fifteen mothers on their list. The law only applies to widows with children of a school age less than 14 years, in order to prevent such families from being broken and that they shall be reared in the best place for the children, the home in which they were born. There are five applications on the waiting list of the local Board. The number of families to which the law applies increased by reason of the flu scourge that carried off so many young people.

The local Board is the following: Mrs. Wm. Arch. McClean, President; Mrs. Donald P. McPherson, Secretary and Treasurer; Mrs. William D. Himes, New Oxford; Mrs. W. S. Adams, Gardners Station; Mrs. William Robert, Cashtown, and Mrs. E. D. Buckey, Littlestown, and Mrs. J. Lischey of York Springs. The regular meetings are held on Tuesday of each month at their room in the Court House.

Hot Ball Games.

One of the sights of the town these days is the Kurtz Memorial Playground when a baseball game is on and that is two or three times a week. A cover has been put on the grand stand and that is usually filled. Four tiers of bleachers have been finished and they are also filled and benches and fence in the rear contain another crowd, and they are all fans, rooting at and after each one's particular ward team.

The game between Second and Third Wards this week was a hot one with a tie of 2 to 2.

Thursday evening the First Ward and Third Ward locked horns in a fight to win and a score of 5 to 3 in favor of the First.

The games nine times out of ten are splendid exhibitions, full of stunts the people like who go to see the national game played. The rivalry between wards puts barrels of pep into the games. Some of the games will have over a thousand witnesses, and with hundreds of children on the playground, the latter place has become the most popular place in town in the evenings.

A Silk Mill in Sight.

Gettysburg has a chance to obtain a silk factory, the Chamber of Commerce having promoted the matter to its present situation. The J. H. and C. K. Eagle Company, of Shamokin, made public their intention to discontinue their plant at Shamokin on account of unsatisfactory labor conditions. Geo. C. Fissel, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, wrote the company of the availability of Gettysburg for the plant. A representative of the company has visited Gettysburg. Land suitable for their purposes was found and if the town can successfully demonstrate labor conditions to be such as the firm desires, Gettysburg stands a good chance to be selected. The Eagle Co. is rated commercially as worth in excess of a million dollars and they do not ask donations of land or taking of stock. The labor situation will be determined as quickly as possible as that will control the whole matter. The policy of the company is based on 48 hours work a week and an 8 hour work day. They have established a policy of paying $8.00 per week minimum wage for female day workers and $15.00 per week minimum wage for male night workers, to be paid while learning only, and advances from this point to be made as workers increase their knowledge of the various operations. Mr. Fissel is securing applications of acceptance of employment and as soon as that situation satisfactorily develops will present the same to the Eagle Company for their consideration.

Camp Colt Gone.

Camp Colt is a memory, a few piles of boards to tell where it had once been. Lewis Brothers, of Rock Island, Ill., the wrecking company, have been on the job for the past two or three months taking up pipe and pulling down buildings. About 375 buildings were in the camp and over 50,000 feet of piping of various size, and there was an enormous quantity of material to be disposed of, which has been in charge of O. W. Smith, manager of Lewis Brothers. The greater part of the wrecked material has been sold and has been taken away, much of it going by railroad cars to various destinations. A lot of the material has been purchased by our home people.

A large quantity of the 4400 cords of wood have not been disposed of. J. Herman Bream became the purchaser of this wood and sold 600 cords at public sale last Saturday.

Visits Former Home.

Corporal Durbin Ott who returned on the 8th of July from eleven months' service overseas, visited among friends in town this week. He was with the 56th Pioneer Infantry and saw active service at the front just six weeks after his enlistment. He was fortunate enough to go through the Argonne offensive without being seriously injured, receiving a small shrapnel wound on the arm. After the armistice Mr. Ott attended the University of Beaune, France, specializing in educational work. Mr. Ott is the son of Rev. and Mrs. L. Dow Ott, formerly of Gettysburg, now of Patton, Pa., and upon returning home was elected to the principalship of the Barnesboro, Cambria County Public Schools.

Recruiting.

Permanent Recruiting Station is open at Carlisle for all arms of the service and specially the Medical Department, where need of men is greatly felt at this time. A campaign to enlist young men without dependents is going on throughout the country. Those enlisting can have option of one or three years, with a private's pay of $30 a month and a chance to advance. Five enlistments were made in Gettysburg last week: Clarence Hansford, Hayden Stape, of town; Samuel J. Thomas, south of town; Roland Kane, of Biglerville, and George Stauffer, of town.

Buchanan Valley Picnic.

The annual Buchanan Valley Picnic will be on next Friday, August 15. It will start at 11:45 A. M. with a field mass in thanksgiving for peace and the picnic follows. Rev. Father Whalen announces this big event of the valley in the following unique way: "See our little cameo church. She has just celebrated her 103rd birthday, and time hasn't written a wrinkle in her placid brow. Come and worship God in His Temple not made with hands. The robins will be there, hymning, and the butterflies will breathe their tiny prayers. The west wind will harp a lyric that is older than the sea."

WELCOME HOME COMMITTEE

REPORT PROGRESS OF PLANS FOR GREAT CELEBRATION.

The One Day Feature Recommended by the American Legion Adopted.

On Friday evening the committee in charge of the plans for the Welcome Home Celebration on Labor Day met and heard reports. The action of the American Legion Post of Gettysburg in recommending a one day celebration was endorsed. Sunday will be marked by thanksgiving sermons by the pastors of all congregations in the county and the following day, Monday, September 8, will be the one big day in celebrating the happy welcoming home of the World War veterans. Rev. Paul Reid Dennis expressed the desire of all Adams county people when he said, "What we want to do is to make this a fair a splendid success. We want the entire county to be present on Labor Day. This is strictly an Adams county and not a Gettysburg affair."

The Invitation Committee reported that there were over eleven hundred service men in the county and to each would go a special invitation. That there were over six hundred Victory Loan Workers, Minute Men and others who would be specially invited to be present. Invitations will go out to nearly two thousand people to come with their families and relatives. It was reported that Governor Sprout could not be present to deliver the address of the occasion, having made arrangements to attend the Governors' Conference in Utah. Attorney General of the United States A. Mitchell Palmer has been written to to make the address and had not been heard from. Father W. F. Boyle's offer of Xavier Hall for a dance on evening of Labor Day and for a place of meeting for soldiers, sailors and marines was announced. H. T. Weaver, chairman of the Red Cross in Adams county reported that the Red Cross Canteen of Gettysburg would provide the eats for the soldiers, sailors and marines and go the limit in making the celebration a success.

No word had been heard from the bands. Publicity was going forward and all the other details of the celebration were being worked out. The Invitation Committee at a session Wednesday evening decided to extend a cordial invitation to the various organizations engaged in patriotic work during the war, and especially the Draft Board, the Committee on Public Defense, American Red Cross, Food Administration, Fuel Administration, Knights of Columbus, Young Men's Christian Association, Young Women's Christian Association, War Camp Community Service, United War Activities, War Saving Stamps, Community Singers, and all Liberty Loans, including all their various members, committees, workers and assistants. In addition the general public is cordially invited to be present on Labor Day and everybody requested to take an active interest in making this the one great day in the history of Adams county.

A plan is on foot by which the surplus food supply of the War Department estimated as worth two hundred million dollars, will be sold to the people at cost price and including parcel post charges. It has been proposed that the 54,000 post masters throughout the country will take orders for the food, customers paying in advance and receiving receipts, entitling them to return of money if delivery should fail for any reason. These orders will be sent to the army warehouses and the food will be sent by parcels post. There are many details of the plan to be worked out but it is expected that the plan can be put in motion at an early date and there will be lists of foods on hand and price lists to help customers in the buying. The amount on hand is likely to be quickly bought for the value is not quite $2 a head for every man, woman and child in the country, so it will be a bargain day rush while the supply lasts.

German Cannon Souvenirs.

Congressman Edward S. Brooks introduced in Congress last week a bill to place upon the Gettysburg National Park ten German cannon with carriages, from among those captured by the American Army. The suggestion is made that two of the cannon be placed upon the grounds of Gettysburg College and the rest at points on the battlefield.

BUILT ON HISTORIC GROUND

New York City's Big Structures Stand on Land That Is of Sacred Memory.

The land on which the Equitable building stands, and the territory around and about it, is of sacred memory so far as early American history is concerned. Just across the way on Broadway was Burns' coffee house, where the Revolution really started. Here was erected at a later date the City hall, the scene of many memorable functions during the early days of the republic.

On the northeast corner of Nassau and Cedar streets is a bronze tablet which reads as follows:

Here stood
The Middle Dutch Church
Dedicated A. D. 1729
Made a British Military Prison in 1794
Restored 1891
Occupied as the U. S. Post Office
1842-1851
Taken down 1852

At which time the post office moved to the present federal building in City Hall park.

On the site of the present subtreasury, at Pine, Nassau and Wall streets, a new city hall was erected in 1699. In front of the building was a cage for criminals, with whipping post and stocks—but not the kind of stocks they sell there now. When independence was declared the building became the capitol and was called Federal hall. Here the Declaration of Independence was read from the steps in 1776, and here also Washington was inaugurated first president of the United States, in 1779.

The wide strip of pavement on the west side of Nassau street in front of the Bankers Trust building bears evidence of the former existence of Federal hall. The latter extended across Nassau street to the building line of the street and so closed the thoroughfare that a passageway was established around the building in order that pedestrians might more readily get to Nassau street. When the subtreasury was built in 1896 on the site of Federal hall, Nassau street was opened to Wall street, and the little passageway was left, and forms the wide sidewalk of today.—Equitable City.

Pardon Recalls Famous Crime.

A famous crime is recalled by the granting of a decree of pardon to a large number of convicts in Italy. Among those thus pardoned are Doctor Naldi and Tullio Murri, who were sentenced in connection with the murder of Count Bonarroti. Murri's brother-in-law, Count Bonarroti, a Bologna spendthrift, who frequently quarreled with his wife, was found in his flat with his throat cut, in August, 1902. The trial, lasting six months, of the countless and four accomplices in the murder, in 1903, aroused enormous interest throughout Italy. All the prisoners were confined in a steel cage in front of the judge's tribunal. Tullio Murri, the countless brother, declared that he was reacquainted with the count for ill-treating his wife, and killed him in a quarrel that followed. He was sentenced to 30 years' military confinement. Doctor Naldi, a friend of Murri's, received the same sentence. He declared that his part in the crime was to cut the corpse in pieces, but that this was not done owing to the date arranged for the murder being altered. The countless, who was sentenced to ten years' solitary confinement, was released in 1909.

England to Honor Pilgrims.

Behind the efforts of those who are seeking to link Great Britain and America in a lasting union of friendship two historic episodes stand out in bold relief. It is almost precisely 300 years since

ALL HUMANITY MUCH ALIKE

Only in Early Life Does the Average Man Imagine He Is Different From Others.

One of the great discoveries that come to us as we advance in life is the fact that deep down in the human heart all men are alike. In early life we think we are different from the rest of the world, but as years go by we find that this is not so, that other men have the same hopes and aspirations, the same troubles and anxieties, the same yearnings after happiness and peace. We learn this from our friends, from those who tell us their troubles and ask for sympathy and advice. Then we learn it from books; from the words of great poets and prophets, and especially from biographies and autobiographies.

As a child I was "castive and shy, and felt that I was peculiar in this respect, and different from the others. I always seemed to take themselves for granted. And yet I have discovered that this is the universal lot of all men. G. Stanley Hall speaks of a "newly revealed and grave danger that works countless tragedies in life—that the child's feelings of inferiority should become dominant and make him feel in his earliest years that he is condemned to a low level of existence, without respect, appreciation, admiration or love." Thus the chronic teaser or lecturer may do great mischief to the tender soul of the child. The child is always asking himself subconsciously, "Do I look worse or better than others?"

This tendency lasts with most men all their lives. We are all the time comparing our lot with that of others. As Emerson says: "Every ship looks envious except the one we are on;" and again, "Every man's life seems to him covered with the slime of failure and defeat, while that of others seems ideal." It is a great help to know that men are alike in this respect. I could give a long list of well-known men and women who suffered from this sense of inferiority, incapacity and defeat, followed by moods of gloom and melancholy—men like Tennyson, Ruskin, Lowell, Symonds, John Stuart Mill, and in our own day, Rudyard Kipling, Richard Harding Davis and others.—Exchange.

Solid Heat.

Another of the problems that our army in France disposed of in a practical way was the supplying of fuel for heating and cooking purposes in the trenches. Solidified alcohol filled the bill because it was safe, convenient to handle and burned without odor or smoke. As a result of the demand, huge factories were built to produce this novel fuel. Now new uses must be found for the vast output of solidified alcohol.

Mr. I. Popper of New York city, who made its use of such practical value by inventions such as the mess kit stove, airplane food carrier, dug-out heater and various other devices, has again come to our rescue by inventing a special kind of portable stove, ideal for picnics, camping, boating and other outdoor excursions. The stove is made in the form of a suitcase of heavy steel and is provided with a hinged drop which forms the front of the stove when it is erected. Folding feet beneath the stove serve to raise it an inch or so above the surface on which it may be placed. The fuel is supplied in the form of cans, which are placed beneath the burner holes.—Philadelphia North American.

Goldenrod Maligned.

A protest has recently been raised against the time-honored project of adopting the goldenrod as the national flower of the United States, on the ground that this plant is a cause of hay fever and hence nothing ought to be done to encourage its prevalence. A statement now has been issued by Dr. W. Scheppegrell, on behalf of the American Hay-Fever Prevention association, in defense of the goldenrod. It is asserted that while the pollen of the goldenrod may cause trouble when applied directly to the nostrils or used in large quantities for room decorations, as a cause of hay fever out of doors it is absolutely negligible. "It is one of our most beautiful flowers," says Doctor Scheppegrell, "and well merits its selection as the national flower of the United States."—Scientific American.

On Leaden Wings.

Here's another one at the expense of the colored boys who fought in France. Seems a detachment walked square into the center of a German ambuscade of machine guns, which without warning broke loose at the rate of several thousand shots a minute.

Simultaneously two colored infantrymen from Dixie started for the Mason Dixon line. After an hour's hard running one of them looked back.

"Hy dar, nigger," he shouted to his comrade, "look at all them flies a-foll'win' you!"

"Get out ob mah way, fool," yelled the other. "Den ain't flies; dem's bullets!"—Exchange.

Revealing.

According to returned doughboy of ficers, Paris fashions are getting more bold and amazing every day.

"While I was at Monte Carlo," remarked one, "I saw a lovely girl standing with a friend of mine. She had just joined him and was obviously proud of her costume.

"How does my new gown show up?" she purred.

"To the knees," he answered promptly, and rubbed it in by adding, "and what stunning buckles you have on your garters!"

"So Shines a Good Deed in a Naughty World."

Beautiful Iris Flower That Old Colored Man Carried Led to Pretty Incident Witnessed on Busy City Street.

He was quite old and very black. His tired eyes were like those of a faithful dog who has had a long day and sits quietly looking up at his master just before lying down on his rug for the night. A neat and clean old black man was he, but not so prosperous as one would wish to be, perhaps. In the evening of life. He was not moving as rapidly as were most of the people on the busy street, and from time to time he almost stopped his slow, shuffling walk to enjoy looking down at the lovely blue iris that he carried tenderly in his wrinkled hand. Any lover of flowers could see at a glance that the old man was likewise a lover of flowers, and more than one busy passer-by turned to look at him and the beautiful bloom he carried.

The woman who finally stopped the old man and spoke to him about his blue flower was kindly looking, elderly, soft-spoken. A listener might have thought she talked just a little in the southern manner.

"You have a lovely iris there, uncle," she said. "Just the kind I always admire every spring. And if you'd like to have some one have it who loves the flowers I'd be very glad to buy it from you."

"Ma'am," said he, taking off the old hat that kept the white wool from blowing in the breeze, "ma'am, ef yo' all like iris Ah sho wish to gib him to yo'. Please to ax'cep' him fum me, ma'am"—and he held out the flower for her to take.

"Oh no, uncle. I couldn't take it from you like that. I didn't mean you to give it to me, indeed I didn't; but it was so lovely I just couldn't help asking you to let me buy it. Thank you just the same, though," she said, pleasantly and smilingly, and started to go down the street.

"Ma'am, ma'am," the old fellow called after her. "Won't yo' all wait jine one minute, please. Ah'll tell what I'd lak to do, ef yo' don't min'. Dere's a Salvation gal dar on de co'ner and Ah didn't hab money 'nuf to gib her any. Yo' all take de iris flo' an' gib her de money, won't yo' please, ma'am?"

"Certainly," said the lady, "and I'm sure the girl will thank you for the money. Good-by, uncle"—and she took the flower and crossed the street to where the bright-faced Salvation Army girl stood collecting stray dimes and nickels and quarters from the hurrying passers-by. And this is what the old dork saw happen when the smiling woman reached the girl.

First of all he saw her open her purse and drop some of its contents into the tin pan the girl held ready and waiting, and then he could see, as they both looked across the street at him, that the lady was telling the girl the source of the contribution—and the girl waved her hand and smiled at the old man. And then he saw the girl look at the flower as the lady held it, and then the flower changed owners once more and was quickly pinned on the lapel of the blue coat the girl wore. The old man smiled, and shuffled along his way, happily. The lady went her way too, and she looked happy. And the Salvation lass, proudly wearing the blue flower, was radiant.—Hartford Courant.

"Bacon Box" Furniture.

"Bacon box stuff" is the contemptuous description by second-hand dealers for much of the new furniture now being hastily manufactured. Such is the shortage of timber and the demand for furniture that packing cases, sugar boxes, etc., supply the material for bedroom suites.

One dealer confided to the writer that he had been offered suites in two grades. When he asked the difference in quality between the two the traveler replied:

"Well, in the cheaper line we can't guarantee that names like 'Best Cured Hams' or 'Parson Oats' won't show up under the varnish. In the better quality we guarantee the wood is stained right down."—London Chronicle.

H. C. L. Hasn't Reached Mountains.

The high cost of living makes little difference to the mountaineers down in Tennessee. A Columbus man who made a trip through that region recently and remained over night and through the day at the home of a mountaineer, was asked to pay $1 for his lodging and three big meals. And the head of the household wanted to know if the charge was too much. At each meal enough was set before the Columbus man to serve five ordinary men. The mountaineers raise everything they eat and do not worry about the high cost of things, because there is little they are obliged to buy.—Columbus Dispatch.

Felt and Cloth From Spun Glass.

It Sole, published at Milan, contains an article on the glass industry, in which it is stated that after a series of experiments made in Venice and Murano by Signor Luigi Risigato, felt and cloth made from spun glass have now been successfully produced there. A new society, the "Vitrum," has been formed with extensive plants at Naples for the manufacture of this felt and cloth for use as insulators in storage batteries.

Fire Destroys Barn.

The barn on the farm of John N. Weaver, in Cumberland township, on the Heretor's Mill road, about two and a half miles from town, burnt to the ground last Sunday afternoon. The big bank barn, a smaller structure, wagon shed, two hog pens, and implement shed were consumed with all the season's crops in the buildings, eight pigs and Chas. Carey's threshing machine. One shed containing oats and wheat and the house were saved by the efforts of the bucket brigade. The fire started in the wagon shed and as soon as the fire was discovered first efforts were to get the horses out of the barn and this was accomplished. In a short time the buildings were all ablaze.

John N. Weaver bought the 180 acre farm a few years ago from William H. Johns. The loss has not been estimated in all details but will run into the thousands of dollars and is partly covered by insurance.

WAR RISK INSURANCE.

To be Reinstated by U. S. Without Payment of Back Premium.

The Secretary of the Treasury has made a most important decision to all discharged soldiers, sailors and marines. The government offered all her soldiers an insurance protection instead of a pension and one far more adequate than that system and desires every soldier, sailor and marine to keep the protection provided and under the new decision a man is relieved of the burden of overdue premiums. He has an opportunity to rehabilitate himself financially after getting out of the army, navy or marine corps, and to reinstate his insurance any time within 18 months following discharge without the burden of paying a large amount of money.

The reason payment for the month of grace is required under the new decision is that the insured was protected by reason of his insurance continuing in force during that month, and that had he died during the period of grace, his policy would have been paid.

Should a lapse again occur, after the eighteen months from date of discharge, reinstatement may be made, providing that at the time of application for reinstatement, such insurance shall not have been lapsed for more than one year, in accordance with the conditions of the decision.

Of course every man who has dropped his insurance should reinstate it immediately, for the reason that if he should die before reinstatement, his dependents will not receive any payment.

Therefore, it urges that care be taken to make clear to every former service man who has dropped his insurance that the new ruling does not automatically reinstate him, and to impress upon him that he will be without insurance until he voluntarily applies for and secures reinstatement. He should immediately apply for reinstatement for his own protection and that of his dependents.

Men die or become disabled in peace time as well as war time, and if a man waits he may not be in as good health as he was at the time of his discharge and consequently may not be able to secure reinstatement. Don't put off reinstatement. Do it now.

Community Ticket.

The community ticket reported to a citizens' meeting on Wednesday evening was ratified without objections. Things looked smooth until near the end when there were remarks that did not explain themselves. Hon. Wm. H. Tipton presided. A report was called for from Nominating Committee composed of Hon. Wm. H. Tipton, Pius G. Breighner, J. D. Swope, J. L. Williams, Chas. E. Stahle, A. Danner Buehler, Calvin Solt and Dr. Wm. Biggs. This committee reported that after interviewing many citizens and asking them to stand for office they had obtained assents and reported the following names for the community ticket.

Town Council.

First Ward—Chas. H. Huber and Chas. J. Toot.

Second Ward—Frank Peckman and J. A. Lentz.

Third Ward—Pius G. Breighner and Preston Tate. These nominations were adopted by the meeting. Later it was said that Preston Tate as a rural carrier could not under the civil service rules accept the nomination and there will likely be a substitution in his place.

For School Director.

Charles Swope, George Black and John McHenry.

Petitions were prepared and signing at once started so that these names would go forth on the Democratic and Republican tickets in the three wards of Gettysburg.

People for League.

Homer S. Cummings, chairman of the Democratic National Committee, has returned to Washington from a two months' tour which embraced nearly all of the States west of the Mississippi River and says:

"My sincere belief, based upon personal observation, is that the people are overwhelmingly in favor of the League of Nations. I believe further that they are satisfied with the covenant as it stands and are not impressed with the alleged necessity for senatorial reservations or interpretations."

"They see in the League covenant not a political issue, but a great humanitarian association designed to prevent future war. I found little sympathy among the big-hearted men and women of the West for those who merely criticize the League without offering a better substitute of their own."

"One who has traversed this great country, as I have just done, cannot fail to note that opposition to the League is rapidly crumbling. I have absolute confidence that the people will respond to the appeal of the President for the ratification of the treaty and that the Senate, taking its cue from public sentiment, will give official sanction to the great work of the President and his colleagues in the peace conference."

"Opposition to early ratification of the peace treaty and the League covenant is exceptional. On the Pacific Coast, in the inter-mountain region, and in the Middle States most of the great Republican newspapers are as earnestly advocating the adoption of the treaty as are the Democratic and independent newspapers. I know from what I have heard and seen that these papers accurately reflect the sentiment of the people."

"As a Democrat, I suppose I should be pleased at the woeful failure of the Republican majority in Congress to do anything worth while, but as an American, I can only regret the feeble leadership of the party now in control of the legislative branch of the government."

MARRIAGES.

Trimmer—Bream—Miss Margaret Bream, daughter of Harvey Bream, of York Springs, and Harry K. Trimmer, of Bernum, were married at the Lutheran parsonage in York Springs, on last Thursday by the pastor, Rev. Paul Glatfelter.

Engagement.

Mr. and Mrs. Gil P. Emmert, of York Springs, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Margaret Rachel Emmert to Charles L. Whitaker, of Berksville, Va. Miss Emmert is a popular young school teacher who was graduated from the Cumberland Valley State Normal School. Mr. Whitaker is a graduate of the University of Virginia, and is now a draftsman in Trout Royal Va.

New Plant at East Berlin.

U. L. Glatfelter, proprietor of the East Berlin Sewing Factory, has purchased the canning factory building of W. Denton Myers at private terms. Salant and Salant, of New York, expect to occupy the building for the cutting of cotton piece goods into shirts, not only for Mr. Glatfelter's factories but for all their branch factories in this section. They expect to operate two or three 200 foot cutting tables, giving them a production of three or four thousand dozen shirts per week. About fifteen men would be employed regularly.

Governor Signs Egg Bill.

Offering of stale eggs for sale as fresh is now punishable in Pennsylvania by a fine of from $10 to $50 or imprisonment for 10 days. Governor Sprout has approved the bill declaring eggs misbranded which are in any way marked or labeled as fresh when they are, in fact, not fresh eggs, as may appear upon proper test.

A. D. Buehler Buys Residence.

Mrs. Jennie Cobean has sold her property on East Middle street at private sale to A. Danner Buehler, Baltimore street, who will take possession this month. Mrs. Cobean has moved into the apartment in the McKnight building vacated by Miss Jane Gilbert.

Mt. Joy Community Picnic.

The committee in charge of the arrangements for the Mt. Joy community picnic which was postponed on July 19 on account of rain, are endeavoring to complete plans to hold the picnic on Saturday, August 23rd. Prominent speakers have been secured for the occasion.

Decrease of Soldiers in Hospitals.

Each week sees a marked decrease in the number of sick and wounded soldiers returning from France. As a result there is a decrease in the number of patients in the army hospitals. According to the latest estimate of the Medical Department there will be at the most, 24,000 cases in hospitals, September 30. To adequately care for this number of patients, the Surgeon General has estimated, will require 14,000 temporary medical and dental officers. This number is in addition to available officers of the Regular Army; and also in addition to the six hundred and nineteen doctors who could now be given permanent commissions in the Army Medical Corps. Pending legislation in Congress whereby emergency officers may be held in service beyond September 30, will enable the War Department to avoid the serious situation which resulted from necessity to reduce personnel, owing to the existing legal situation.

Jumped on Fork Handle.

Luther Fox, 25 years old, residing with his father-in-law, Emory G. Starnes, near Table Rock, about four miles north of Gettysburg, met with a serious accident last Saturday. He had been engaged at the unloading of oats into the barn and after the last load had been put away he threw his fork down from the loft and the fork went prongs downward in some hay, with the handle pointing upward. Fox descended the ladder and when near the floor jumped and landed on the end of the handle of the fork and his body was torn open, the intestines and bladder being pierced. Gettysburg physicians being called he was rushed to the Carlisle Hospital and operation performed. Though seriously wounded hopes are entertained for his recovery.

Victory Ribbons and Medals.

Information has already been made public, concerning the issue of Victory Ribbons and Victory Medals, to soldiers and ex-soldiers. Because some men have called at the Army Recruiting offices to get theirs, it is evident that there is a misunderstanding as to the date when these issues will be made. The announcement is made that the manufacturer will deliver the Official Victory Ribbon Bars to the Zone Supply Officer in New York, on August 9. Soon thereafter, recruiting offices will receive a supply for issue—but to men in service only. When the Victory Medal is ready, it will be issued, with the Ribbon bar, to ex-service men. Watch the newspapers for announcement of the date.

TWO NATIONAL CLUBS EXPERIENCE SHAKEUPS

Two national league clubs underwent shakeups as the major league races swung into the last half of the flag race. "Cactus" Cravath, slugger of the Philadelphia team, was appointed manager of the Phillies to succeed Jack Coombs. While Fred Mitchell resigned as president of the Chicago Cubs to take the managerial lines again and attempt to drive his team to another pennant.

Getting Acquainted With America.

The United States has been getting the greatest advertising during the last two years that any nation has ever received, and the results of this should be reaped in foreign trade, just as any merchant obtained custom from an advertising campaign.

Since the beginning of the war there has been a steady stream of foreign missions on tour in the United States, headed by men of prominence in their respective countries. They have visited the shipyards, the steel mills, the camps and the industrial cities, and they have seen the miles of fertile farm lands and gained a new conception of the vastness of America and its ability to put over big things on a big scale. A convention of the League of Nations in Washington will add still more to this world knowledge of America's resources. The chief thing now to be sought is the holding of the advantage gained.—Forbes Magazine.

Big Brother Movement.

The "Big Brother" movement was started in 1904, by Ernest K. Coulter, in New York city. Since that time the work has been taken up in over 100 cities. There is a staff of paid workers, supplemented by volunteers—lawyers, physicians, merchants, etc. The object is to obtain the cause of the boy's troubles—whether it be truancy, stealing, lying, running away from home, etc. Then with the cooperation of parents, through the medium of the "Big Brothers," an effort is made to build up within the boy a sense of honor and good citizenship. The headquarters are at 129 Fifth avenue, New York city.

Discharging a Cook.

One result of the bolshevik law that persons who are employed cannot be removed arbitrarily is in London the Bulletin Russe, published by the League for the Regeneration of Russia at Lausanne, Switzerland. It relates that at Smolensk a baker and a cook whom he wished to discharge. She refused to leave her place and he was unable to turn her out. On the advice of a bolshevik friend the baker married his cook, and immediately afterward divorced her. As a divorced woman she was legally compelled to leave the premises.

MANY TREES GO TO WASTE

Federal Official Points Out What Might Be Gained by Proper Utilization of Paper.

The amount of waste paper collected in all of Great Britain was about 1,000 tons a week in 1914. By 1918 it had been increased to 6,000 tons per week or an increase of approximately 500 per cent, said H. L. Baldensperger, chief of the waste reclamation service, United States department of commerce in a speech to the Federation of Women's Clubs.

"Waste material is the protector of our natural resources. Waste paper utilized in the manufacture of other paper material, serves as a substitute for wood pulp. It requires eight trees of mature growth to produce a ton of paper pulp. Every ton of waste paper which can be substituted will save eight trees for other uses. In our urban centers we send annually to the dump approximately 13 tons of usable waste material for every 1,000 inhabitants, and 20 per cent of this tonnage is made up of waste paper.

"Based upon the approximation of the present population of our country, we are sending annually to the dump at least 150,000 tons of waste paper, or twice as much paper as was collected in all of Great Britain in 1918. This amount represents the substituted power for at least 1,200,000 trees of mature growth."

New Warships Are Powerful.

Our latest dreadnaughts—Iowa and Massachusetts—mark a great advance in size and power over any previous warships. Their length will be 634 feet, their breadth 106 feet, and their mean draft will be 33 feet. The motive power will be similar to that of the Mexico, that is to say they will have the electric drive. The maximum speed will be 23 knots and they will have a cruising radius of 8,000 miles. Their displacement will reach the unprecedented figure of 43,200 tons. The armament will consist of 12 16-inch guns and 16 six-inch guns.

THEY'RE BACK!!

Sure they can come back. With "Kid" Gleason, manager of the Chicago White Sox and Hugh Jennings—boss of the Detroit Tigers. "Watch Detroit," is baseball's wisest saying right now. Jennings who won pennant several years ago—has built up another great team around his star, Ty Cobb. Gleason—retired to coach and then let out, has come back to pilot the White Sox, deposing "Pants" Rowland and he now has his team out in front.

NEVER-TOLD DEATH TEST

Discovery of French Physician That Is Acknowledged to Be of Highest Importance.

Uncertainty as to whether a person has died is one of the great problems of the medical profession. In such cases it is far more important to err on the side of life. Dr. A. Terson has just announced to the French Academy of Medicine a new test—those already known having proved insufficient. The best of these latter has been the action of fluorescein, as devised by Land. But even this is uncertain in some cases near who are dead do not show the green color of the whites of their eyes following injection, which the test is supposed to produce.

Doctor Terson recommends placing in the eye a minute quantity of a 33 per cent solution of dinon (ethyl-morphine), given in. If death has already taken place, nothing happens, but if the man has the slightest trace of life still in him the white of his eyes will immediately turn purplish-red and swell, but this inflammation will disappear rapidly and leave no ill effect.
